August is National Eye Exam Month

An Eye Exam Is Not Just about Vision

Perhaps you don't wear glasses or contacts and haven't had any issues with your eyes. So, you think, "Why would I need to go to the eye doctor every year?" You might be surprised to know that there is more to an eye exam than just checking your visual clarity. Here are three reasons why you should visit your eye doctor every year.

- Detects Early Signs of Chronic Diseases like Diabetes.
- Some Eye Diseases Are Symptom-Free.
- Your Vision Might Not Be as Clear as You Think.
